

Who May Use the Library

- A. The library will serve all residents of the Town of Skowhegan. Service will not be denied or abridged because of religious, racial, social, economic, sexual or political status. Persons residing outside the geographical area but owning property in the town, will be considered residents for the purpose of using the library. An annual registration fee will be charged to nonresidents. The use of the reading and reference rooms are free of charge to all persons abiding by library rules and regulations.

- B. The use of the library or its services shall be limited when excessive demands of groups or individuals tend to curtail service to the general public.

- C. The use of the library or its services may be denied for due cause. Such cause may be failure to return books or materials, or to pay penalties, destruction of library property, disturbance of other patrons, or any objectionable conduct on library premises.

The Library Board of Trustees reserves the right to alter this policy without prior notice.

Approved 03/04/14